BRAND PARTNER SPOTLIGHT

Those making a difference today

FITTEAM is proud to recognize and congratulate each and every one of our Brand Partners spotlighted in this month edition. Each of these hard working individuals attended this past weekends Silver Leadership Retreat.

For those of you who may not know what a Silver Leadership Retreat is, it is an all expense paid trip to South Florida where you can visit the FITTEAM headquarters and spend some time with our corporate staff. This trip is earned upon becoming a Silver Executive. This retreat is a time to get to know not only one another better but to learn with FITTEAM is truly about.

Each of these dedicated executives have shown they are focused on helping others live their BEST life and we could not be more proud to support them in that effort. We look forward to their continues success and cannot wait to see what the future holds for all of them.

“Network marketing gives you the opportunity to face your fears, deal with them, overcome them, and bring out the winner that you have living inside you.” ~ Robert Kiyosaki

MESSAGE FROM CEO

If you are forced to stay home would you be able to produce an income?

18 years ago I was let go from my job completely blind sided because I never saw it coming. This financially ruined myself and my family which was devastating. I was naive at the time and didn't know making an income from home was a possibility. I was like most people, going through life life not aware of what is possible, thinking everything is great all the time. That's not the real world, until it hits you and something goes sideways.

So this is something I give you to think about... if you are forced to stay home are you able to produce an income?

- Chris Hummel
